

Pacifica Elections 2010

Programming Guidelines Document

These guidelines have been developed in an effort to create flexibility and recognize station realities while respecting the April 2009 Resolution on programming requirements during the election period.

This document includes:

- Quotes from the April 2009 resolution p.2
- Programming guidelines p.3
- An Election timeline illustration p.4
- An Election timeline p.5
- Phase by Phase Election Topic List p.6-8
- Phase by Phase Election scripts p.9-19
- April 2009 Resolution (in full) p.20-22
- On Air Forum Format, Moderator Script, Groundrules, Run-sheet p.23-40

Please note that it is always preferable that station members appropriate this process. That being said if you have an alternative script or other idea just contact Renee Asteria, the National Election Supervisor with your proposition (nes@pacifica.org).

QUOTES from April 25th, 2009 Resolution:

CARTS

“Six 60 second carts and Six 30 second carts shall be aired each day in rotation. (...) For stations with Spanish or other language broadcasting, the carts would be aired in that language during broadcasts in that language, with the number and frequency of the carts corresponding to the amount of said language broadcasting (hours per day) at the station.”

TUTORIALS

“Each programmer or collective with a one hour or more program slot shall be required to produce and air one 15 minute tutorial on the election during the nomination period. This tutorial shall be recorded and repeated once during the nomination period. This responsibility applies to all paid and unpaid programmers, including music programmers.”

OFFICIAL REPORTS

CANDIDATE CARTS

“Sixty second candidate statements shall be recorded at the radio station by each candidate. PDs and GMs are expected to air these statements in rotation right after the nomination period is closed through to the end of the campaign period. In total, each candidate shall have her/his cart aired a minimum of 30 times in a variety of times of the day and week. It is the responsibility of the PDs and GMs to ensure that these carts are played in an equitable manner so that no candidates are advantaged or disadvantaged.”

FORUMS

“When the nomination period is over, the PDs and GMs are responsible for fully cooperating with local and national election supervisors to ensure that a minimum of 3 on-air candidate forums of one hour in length are aired for each 5 candidates.”

Election 2010 Programming Guidelines

Each program must air election material (carts, tutorials, official reports) within the nomination period (June 1st till June 30th), campaign period (July 1st till September 30th) and ballot phase (August 16th till September 30th). Election material must be distributed across the programming grid in such a way to reach not only as many listeners as possible but also reach the diverse listener-base which exists at all stations. This entails airing material during the most listened to programs as well as programs that have fewer listeners.

Each station will have a different rotation schedule. A diverse vertical, horizontal distribution plan should be a collaborative decision made together with key staff (program director, music and news department), traffic operator, specific programmers, local election supervisor and national election supervisor in order to find a solution to integrating election material into station realities such as the fund drive.

A nomination phase projected scheduled for the airing of election material during the nomination phase (June 1st to June 30th) should be submitted to the National Election Supervisor by June 7th.

A campaign phase projected scheduled for the airing of election material for the campaign phase (July 1st to Sept. 30th), including candidate carts and candidate on-air forums should be submitted to the National Election Supervisor by July 15th. On-air candidate forums should be scheduled during the last week of August into September as listeners will have ballot in hand.

The cooperation of everyone will be necessary to track progress. The rotation of election carts and tutorials will be facilitated by the traffic coordinator (or other responsible staff member) by providing the daily logs (at the stations where log outputs exist) to the local election supervisor. Programs that decide to cover election material with their program team will submit a description (program, time, day, specific topic covered, duration) in writing (email or hard copy) within 1 week of airing to the local election supervisor so that she/he can check the online archive for completeness.

In an effort to facilitate the scheduling of election material here are various formats. The programmer can select the format which best suits them.

Suggested Format:

- Election material created by the programmer covering the information provided in the election topic list and/or using the election scripts. This can be a combination of shorter and longer radio segments, for example, five - 3 minute productions, eight - 2 minute productions or a full 15 minute chunk. Please have your production idea approved by the local election supervisor. It may be useful and fun to join forces with other programmers to do this.
- Use pre-produced PSAs and tutorials created by the local election supervisor. These are based off of the election scripts. Multiple pre-productions are in the making and will be made available in broadcast quality as produced. You will have to combine shorter and longer radio segments.
- Invite an informed guest speaker (local station board member, local station board supervisor, other knowledgeable persona) and carry out an interview covering the topics in election topic list. Make sure your guest is not a prospective candidate!

Role of the Local Station Board

Two-person dialogue format “Skeptic versus Idealist”

Skeptic:

Politics, Politricks, a waste of resources, thats what I think about this so called “local station board election”. No matter what the truth always seems to get drowned out by never ending drama, battles for power. I want no part in it.

Idealist:

Hey, I feel you. in this world dominated by multinational corporations it seems like trying to push forward a cause is impossible. But if you give up you have let the system win. (Your station) Local Station Board election is a unique fusion of media and democracy. It is the only listener supported network for which a mechanism for getting involved exists. You have the opportunity to run as a candidate and vote.

Skeptic:

Yeah but does the Local Station Board have any teeth?

Idealist:

The local station board has the power to make or break (your station). They make important decisions with respect to the budget, evaluating management, overseeing programming and creating policy. It is essential that the candidates running bring their expertise to the table. Be it in fundraising or technology, or community outreach. There is a slew of Local Station Board duties outlined in the Pacifica Bylaws which you can find on pacificaelections2010.org.

Skeptic:

Well I'll believe it when I see it. The impression I have is that it is just a waste of precious resources

Idealist:

Well all more reason to be proactive. Run or vote in this years election. For all of you listening, please visit Pacificaelections2010.org for more information and to request a nomination package. For more information contact (your name, your email, your telephone number). Remember to renew your membership by donating 25$ before June 30th in order to participate as a candidate or voter. Candidate nomination packages must be received before June 30th.

Three-person dialogue format

Renee: Greetings to all People listening to these airwaves.

I, (your name), your KPFA Election Supervisor, am here with {Xavier, Costa Rican born now Berkeley Native} (change based on your set up) to encourage you to participate in the local station board elections as a candidate, voter or by helping with community outreach efforts.

Xavier (with attitude): Wait wait wait whats all of this I did not know we were in the middle of an election What is all this about? I thought that I was done with my voter duty for at least another 2 years...

R: This is an election for (your station) local station board. (your station) is part of Pacifica radio, America's oldest independent media network which is also the only radio network with a democratically elected board. Without your participation (your station) with all of its diverse truth and insanity, may cease to exist.

The (your station) station board has the power to make or break the station as we know it.

Xavier: Hmm ahh ok. So what do you mean by make or break? I mean if I decide to run – you mean I actually will have a say? Or is it just a title that will look good on my resume?

Renee: Well yeah the local station board has a lot of power, as well as, responsibilities .. furthermore I think that by participation in the board will not only enrich your resume, but enrich your life.

Xavier: Sooooo

Renee: okok I'm getting to it K?

Xavier: yeahyeahyeah .. but you know I've got a lot of things to do so keep it snappy

Renee: Local station board delegates have an extremely vital role. They must review and approve the station's budget, they oversee programming and create policy to ensure that programs represent the needs of listeners and communities served by the station. As you can imagine, people serving on the board need to bring something to the table, be it a particular expertise, such as fund-raising, technology, community outreach and more

X: how does the LSB find out what the people need? I mean I know what I need and I think I may have a fairly good idea about what others in my community need, but I would imagine you need to have a more formal way, some method to find this out ...

R: Yes yes you are exactly right. The local station board carries our formal studies of community needs. A main responsibility is to reach out to underrepresented communities to help serve people of all ages, ethnicities, social class, sexual orientations and genders. You should really get involved. If you want to make a change and get your voice heard now is your chance.

X: Wow. If I were to run and win ... hehehe... looks like I could help make some real changes, or at least start the process.

R: I'm happy you're inspired ☺

X: So what are the requirements to run as a candidate?

R: You need to be a current member of (your station) by June 30th, either by renewing your membership or by becoming a new member. If you haven't done this yet you will need to make a minimum annual donation of $25, or perform 3 hours of volunteer work for (your station).

X: Oki doki artichoki and...

R: You need to complete the candidate nomination package posted on Pacifica's website at www.pacificaelections2010.org or get a hard copy from me, your Local Election Supervisor (email telephone number).

Cece: helllooo

X: so when is this nomination package thingy due and what does it consist of???

R: All of your written materials must be returned before midnight, June 30th in order to qualify as a listener candidate.

These materials include 15 valid signatures of people you know are current members of your station;

X: I don't know if I even know 15 people in this entire world

Cece: hellooo

R: what

X: just kidding

R: where was I oh .. here.. In addition to the petition you must complete candidate statements, a questionnaire and refer a volunteer to help out by serving on the election committee.

X: K.

R: If you really want to get elected, the sooner your nomination papers are received and verified the sooner your information can be posted on pacificaelections2010.org

X: heyhey you know im still here ... so once I finish this nomination package thingy and get all the people in the world I know to sign my petition .. whats next?

R: What's next?

Then the campaign begins:

Campaigning runs from June 1st to September 30th,

X: Hold on ... I've never been a candidate ...explain please - if I'm a candidate where do I campaign?

R: That's were my job comes in. As local election supervisor I have to ensure that you, as a listener candidate will have several on air and in person opportunities, to make your opinions known to the voting public and to debate with the other listener candidates during the election period.

X: mmmhmm

R: BY they way ... everyone who's listening ...

Cece: hellooo

Even if you do not want to run, please support the democratic process by serving on the election committee which meets every (day, time). Please contact me, (your name) if you want to get involved in any way. Every little bit helps. Visit pac

Cece: Goodbye

Xavier - goodbye! Chao!

Ballots Phase (August 16th to September 1st)

Significance of STV voting method (August 21st to Sept 30th)

Two person dialogue (radio host and a caller)

Radio host (deep booming): This is a special announcement about (your station) local station board election. Did you get your ballot? You know the crazy grid with a bunch of names and numbers. Confused about how to cast your vote?

Let me clarify. In this year's election we will elect 9 listener member delegates to serve a term of 3 years on (your station's) Local station board using a method called Single Transferable Vote or STV which allows you to rank your candidate choices rather than just select one. The ballot is designed in order to document your unique ranking pattern.

(incoming call) Caller: Hmmm sounds complex this Single Transferable Boat I mean Vote ... Never heard of it

Radio host: I wouldn't have expected you to have ... it's not the system we use in our two party "quote un quote" democracy - Let me see if I can explain this simply ... The Single Transferable Vote (STV) method allows you to rank your top choices instead of just choosing one. It is designed to minimize "wasted" votes and provide proportional representation. In other words, the STV method almost ensures that your choices will be represented in the final election results. Why don't you take your ballot out and I can help guide you through the process.

(papers shuffling)

Caller: So guide me please - I see a bunch of names and a grid. What do I do?

Radio host: First find the candidates you want to vote for and then decide how you will rank them.

Caller: Do I have to rank all candidates? What if I only like one?

Radio host: You can rank as many or as few candidates as you like. The count process goes through a series of rounds and candidates get elected or eliminated at each round based on the proportion of votes that they accumulate. Lets go through a few scenarios to help explain.

If you decide to vote for only one candidate by filling in the box corresponding to position 1 next to that person's name your vote is lost if that person is not elected in the first round. On the other hand, if you rank your top 5, and your first choice loses in the first round, then your vote count is "transferred" to your second choice in the second round. If your second choice does not win, then your vote is "transferred" to your third choice in the third round. By using the STV method there is a greater chance that your vote will count in the end. Does this make sense? Isn't it better that your vote count towards your second or third choice then be thrown away?

Caller: It would appear so .. I'm still a bit fuzzy on the mathematics of it all. But, what if I like all 5 candidates equally?

Radio host: You can assign first place to all five and each candidate will get 1/5th of your vote in the first round.

Caller: This IS making more sense.

Radio host:

The candidates in this election are members just like you who would like to help keep (your station) alive by making important decisions with respect to the budget, overseeing programming and creating policy. Please don't take this choice lightly. Visit pacificaelections2010.org to find out more about the candidates running so you can make an informed choice. For more information contact (your name, your email, your telephone number). Ballots must be received by September 30th.

APRIL 2009 RESOLUTION

4020 PACIFICA FOUNDATION LOCAL STATION BOARD ELECTION POLICY ADOPTED BY THE PNB, APRIL 25, 2009

In order to ensure fair and equitable elections at all 5 Pacifica radio stations in compliance with the Bylaws of The Pacifica Foundation the following policies were adopted by the Pacifica National Board, April 25, 2009, at their meeting in Berkeley California:

- 1) The job descriptions of all Program Directors and General Managers shall include: full cooperation with both local and national election supervisors in all aspects of local station board elections.
- 2) It is the responsibility of the General Managers of each station to ensure that membership lists for listener-sponsors and paid and unpaid staff lists are created and maintained in general and especially checked for accuracy a minimum of 3 months prior to a local station board election.
 - a) Unpaid staff organizations shall maintain lists of membership that include a description of the unpaid staff member's contribution to a particular program or other volunteer work for the station and some way of verifying the number of hours they work per month on a volunteer basis to ensure that it conforms to the Bylaws minimum requirement of 30 hours in the preceding 3 months or the requirements of their radio station's "Unpaid Staff Organization" or "Unpaid Staff Collective Bargaining Unit". Full cooperation of the General Manager and station staff shall be expected in maintaining this list and verifying the validity of its membership.
- 3) To ensure the greatest amount of listener participation in local station board elections, it is mandatory that Program Directors and General Managers air carts at all 5 stations in the nomination period to adequately inform our listeners about how they can self-nominate, what the duties of an LSB member are, how the LSB interfaces with station management and staff, both paid and unpaid, etc.

Six 60 second carts and Six 30 second carts shall be aired each day in rotation. This is 6 carts, total, aired in rotation each day of the nomination period. For stations with Spanish or other language broadcasting, the carts would be aired in that language during broadcasts in that language, with the number and frequency of the carts corresponding to the amount of said language broadcasting (hours per day) at the station. For example, if there are 3 hours of broadcasting in a language different from English a day on a station, one 60 second cart and one 30 second cart per day in rotation would be adequate.

These carts would be scripted in advance by the NES to conform with the Pacifica Bylaws and the same carts be used at all 5 stations with the addition of local contact information. The carts may be varied, but the intent would be to alert the broad listenership about the election during the ENTIRE nomination period, to explain the election process, etc., and to steer listeners to a phone number and website for further information.

Each programmer or collective with a one hour or more program slot shall be required to produce and air one 15 minute tutorial on the election during the nomination period. This tutorial shall be recorded and repeated once during the nomination period. This responsibility applies to all paid and unpaid programmers, including music programmers.

LOCAL STATION BOARD ELECTION POLICY

ADOPTED BY THE PNB, APRIL 25, 2009

In addition, one report to the listeners from the national level and one from the local level involving both management and board participation from staff and board members who are not candidates, shall be done during the nomination period. These reports shall be one hour long.

This prescribed programming shall be aired irrespective of fundrives or any other broadcasting. The listenership should be engaged in the election process wherever possible, to encourage membership and volunteer participation. Members should also be encouraged to participate in the election committees established at each station in accordance with the by-laws.

Logs of all programming, including incidental carts, shall be maintained including each time an election cart is aired. Archived programs should include these carts so that the fact that they were aired can be verified if needed.

Promotion needs to be done to explain the election process to potential staff candidates as well. This promotion would be done at staff meetings, on the station bulletin board and using paid and unpaid staff email lists.

4) When the nomination period is over, the PDs and GMs are responsible for fully cooperating with local and national election supervisors to ensure that a minimum of 3 on-air candidate forums of one hour in length are aired for each 5 candidates.

Sixty second candidate statements shall be recorded at the radio station by each candidate. PDs and GMs are expected to air these statements in rotation right after the nomination period is closed through to the end of the campaign period. In total, each candidate shall have her/his cart aired a minimum of 30 times in a variety of times of the day and week. It is the responsibility of the PDs and GMs to ensure that these carts are played in an equitable manner so that no candidates are advantaged or disadvantaged.

Further, General Managers shall cooperate in the planning and coordination of community candidate forums.

5) Failure to comply with any or all of the above policy shall result in rapid but gradient disciplinary measures including but not limited to: a) A negative mention in the PD or GM's personnel file, b) Graduated reduction in pay, c) Suspension of duties, d) The assignment of another staff person to ensure compliance with election policies and procedures.

Conversely, compliance with this policy shall be followed by: a) A positive mention in the PD or GM's personnel file, b) A bonus or other reward at the discretion of the discretion of the LES, NES in conjunction with senior management.

6) Disciplinary measures may be invoked by the local or national election supervisor in conjunction with the station management, HR Director and/or the Executive Director. They may also be initiated by any GM or the ED.

On-air Forum Sample from KPFA's 2009 LSB election

ONAIR FORUM FORMAT

The debate format consists of the traditional Q&A format but allows for the creation of debate by using follow-up questions and comments. It is designed for a 1 hour program giving the opportunity for 5 candidates to appear and also includes a call-in period to take questions from the public. The debate questions are taken from a master list of questions compiled over the course of the election from a diversity of voices. Each candidate will be asked a unique question randomly selected from the list and given the opportunity to go into depth (4 minutes). Each question will be followed by an opportunity for all the other candidates to make a comment and pose a follow-up question (30 seconds each).

The initial order of candidates (C) is decided ahead of time by generating a random sequence of 5 numbers with 1 to 5 corresponding to an individual candidate. C1, C2, C3, C4 and C5 correspond to candidates 1 to 5 respectively.

Opening Section:

Opening statement by moderator consisting of LSB election introduction, debate format & rules, 15 second introduction to each candidate participating (4 minutes)

Question I:

1. Question one for candidate 1 (C1)

Moderator asks the first question to be answered by the first candidate (C1) determined by the initial random sequence

2. Answer period 1 (2 minutes)

C1 has 2 minutes to answer the question

3. Commentary & Follow-up Question period (2 minutes)

Each of the 4 remaining candidates have 30 seconds to comment on C1's answer (support, refute, add or remove something) and ask a follow-up question. They can pass if they have nothing to say.

The ordering of comments will be determined by the same sequence (C2, C3, C4, C5).

4. Response period (2 minutes)

C1 responds to candidate questions and comments.

Question II:

1. Question two for candidate 2 (C2)

Moderator asks the second question to be answered by the second candidate (C2) determined by the initial random sequence

2. Answer period 1 (2 minutes)

C2 has 2 minutes to answer the question

3. Commentary & Follow-up Question period (2 minutes)

Each of the 4 remaining candidates have 30 seconds to comment on C2's answer (support, refute, add or remove something) and ask a follow-up question. They can pass if they have nothing to say.

The ordering of comments will be determined by the same sequence (C3, C4, C5, C1).

4. Response period 2 (2 minutes)

C2 responds to candidate questions and comments.

Question III:

1. Question three for candidate 3 (C3)

Moderator asks the third question to be answered by the third candidate (C3) determined by the initial random sequence

2. Answer period 1 (2 minutes)

C3 has 2 minutes to answer the question

3. Commentary & Follow-up Question period (2 minutes)

Each of the 4 remaining candidates have 30 seconds to comment on C3's answer (support, refute, add or remove something) and ask a follow-up question. They can pass if they have nothing to say.

The ordering of comments will be determined by the same sequence (C4, C5, C1, C2).

4. Response period (2 minutes)

C3 responds to candidate questions and comments.

Question IV:

1. Question four for candidate 4 (C4)

Moderator asks the fourth question to be answered by the fourth candidate (C4) determined by the initial random sequence

2. Answer period 1 (2 minutes)

C4 has 2 minutes to answer the question

3. Commentary & Follow-up Question period (2 minutes)

Each of the 4 remaining candidates have 30 seconds to comment on C4's answer (support, refute, add or remove something) and ask a follow-up question. They can pass if they have nothing to say.

The ordering of comments will be determined by the same sequence (C5, C1, C2, C3).

4. Response period (2 minutes)

C4 responds to candidate questions and comments.

Question V:

1. Question four for candidate 5 (C5)

Moderator asks the fifth question to be answered by the fifth candidate (C5) determined by the initial random sequence

2. Answer period 1 (2 minutes)

C5 has 2 minutes to answer the question

3. Commentary & Follow-up Question period (2 minutes)

Each of the 4 remaining candidates have 30 seconds to comment on C5's answer (support, refute, add or remove something) and ask a follow-up question. They can pass if they have nothing to say.

The ordering of comments will be determined by the same sequence (C1, C2, C3, C4).

4. Response period (2 minutes)

C5 responds to candidate questions and comments.

Closing Section:

Each candidate makes a 30 sec. closing statement inverting the order of appearance (C5, C4, C3, C2, C1). With the remaining time the moderator accepts calls from the public. Callers have 15 seconds to ask their question. General questions are prioritized and questions directed at specific candidates are screened in order to make sure that each candidate gets an equal opportunity to answer questions from the public.

Moderator Script Sample from KPFA's 2009 election - Real situation
Moderator Opening Statement (4 minutes)

Hello and welcome to the second listener candidate radio forum for KPFA's 2009 local station board election. This is the second part featuring the participation of more candidates running for the local station board. I'm Renee Asteria, the election supervisor and moderator for the program. The questions I will ask candidates represent concerns raised at the multiple in person forums we have been having all over the Bay area over the past 3 weeks.

The rules are as follows:

Each candidate has 30 seconds to introduce themselves.

I will then ask a question to 1 of the 4 candidates and that candidate will have 2 minutes to respond to the question at hand.

The other candidates will have 30 seconds each to, either challenge the candidate who spoke with a follow-up question or, make a comment or say Pass if they have nothing to add.

The candidate under question will then have 2 minutes to respond to the questions or comments made by the other candidates.

I will ask a unique question to each candidate. Each question has been randomly assigned to candidates.

Once all candidates have been questioned they will each have 30 seconds to make a closing statement.

Then we will accept calls from the public, only general questions will be accepted at this time.

Please remember the call in number is ...

ONAIR FORUM Ground-rules

KPFA ONAIR FORUM - DATE & TIME

August 22nd, 2009 at KPFA Radio (1929 Martin Luther King, Berkeley 94704)

From 12:00 till 6:00 pm there will be 6 – 1 hour long debates with a panel composed of 5 candidates.

It is not possible to modify your time-slot.

Please arrive 20 minutes ahead of schedule.

There will be only 2 minutes to change candidate panels so if you are not present we will begin the debate without you.

You probably will not be able to participate if you miss your time slot.

GROUND RULES

- There will be no substitutes or stand-ins for the candidates. In the event of absence, candidates can provide a 15 second statement to be read by the local election supervisor for presentation.
- All news releases about the debate will be handled by the local election supervisor and sent simultaneously to all the candidates.
- Campaign banners, signs, literature handouts or other campaign paraphernalia will be allowed in the debate hall.
- Opening Statements: The moderator will introduce the candidates using a 15-second introduction provided by the candidates. If no introduction is provided, the moderator will use the 15-second introduction provided by the local election supervisor.
- Candidates will be introduced by title. Thereafter, "Mr." and "Ms." will be used.
- Random sequence generated by random.org prior to the debate will decide the order of candidates for answering the first question, stating comments, making follow-up questions and making closing statements. Candidates will be assigned a card (C1, C2, C3, C4 and C5) respecting the order.
- Candidates can bring notes, pad and pens for taking notes during the debate.
- Cell phones should be turned off.
- Time limits on responses will be strictly observed.
- All candidates will receive a master list of questions to prepare (see Master list of LSB Election Questions).
- Debate questions will be taken from the master list.
- Candidate follow-up questions must keep on topic.
- The master list represents questions provided to the local election supervisor from staff and listener – members.

- A timekeeper will hold cards (30 seconds, 10 seconds), visible to the speaker, indicating how much time remains. When the "stop card" is shown, the speaker must end his/her speech within 10 seconds.
- The moderator will have the responsibility for enforcing time limits. The moderator also will have the authority to interrupt the proceedings to enforce the groundrules and format that were agreed to by the candidates.
- The moderator will introduce the candidate speaking before and after he/she speaks.
- The moderator may restate the question.
- The moderator may interrupt the candidates if they believe the candidates are straying from the subject.
- The candidates will not interrupt one another.
- The candidates' closing statements should be significantly related to the matters debated previously.
- As there is no opportunity for rebuttal following the closing statements, candidates will refrain from personal attacks or charges.
- The debate must be run by a moderator, who does not act as a spokesman for KPFA on the subjects discussed, but has the sole function of ensuring that the ground rules are observed.
- At the beginning and end of each debate, the moderator must state that the views expressed are those of the candidates, not of KPFA, and that the sponsorship of the debate is not an endorsement by the sponsor of any candidate.
- The moderator must also state that all viable candidates have been invited.
- Prior to forums, Moderators must disclose, in writing, any affiliations with, and/or endorsements for, any candidates, to the National Election Supervisor.
- KPFA may report what happens at the debate, but must do so without mentioning the candidates name, providing editorial comment or endorsement and must circulate the report only through its normal channels of communication.
- KPFA may refer listeners to the debate which will be kept in the archive and accessible online.
